

In 2018, Pinecastle Records released the Lorraine Jordan & Carolina Road album, "Country Grass," that would forever change the relationship between bluegrass and country music. In fact, it would marry them into a beautiful collaboration that legions of fans can't get enough of. The bluegrass chart-toppers teamed with some of the biggest country artists of all-time, including Crystal Gayle, Lee Greenwood, Jim Ed Brown, Lynn Anderson, The Kentucky Headhunters, T.G. Sheppard, Eddy Raven, John Anderson and John Conlee, to give some of their favorite country classics a new and unique, bluegrass twist. In addition, joining the impressive line-up are country and bluegrass singers Kelly Lang, Jesse Keith Whitley, Marty Raybon and Ronnie Reno.

Tracks included in this special collection are the #1 Billboard hits "Ready For The Times to Get Better," "Common Man," "Dixie Road," "Diggin' Up Bones," "I Got Mexico," "Do You Want To Go To Heaven," "Don't Close Your Eyes," and "Rose Garden." In addition to recording individual tracks with Lorraine Jordan & Carolina Road, another highlight on the album is "Boogie Grass Band., which was originally released by Conway Twitty in 1978, but was re-arranged by Lorraine Jordan and Bluegrass singer/songwriter Ronnie Reno, who is the host of Reno's Old Time Music, airing on RFD-TV. Listen closely, because this track is full of country music legends, all lend their vocals on this upbeat anthem.

"COUNTRY GRASS" Lorraine Jordan & Carolina Road

Lorraine Jordan & Carolina Road have taken the Country Grass show on the road to please their fans and the audience will be taken on an emotional journey, with songs that hit the highest of highs and the lowest of lows. The band delivers tunes that will have fans singing along for days following the live shows.

As strong supporters of our military and country, a very important part of our show is expressing our patriotism. We dedicate music to the military and Veterans by performing all the military songs of each branch asking members in audience of each branch to stand while we recognize them. We also perform great freedom songs like America the Beautiful, God Bless America and God Bless the USA.

Coupled with a long tradition of providing only the best in bluegrass and acoustic music, Country Grass is an outstanding show for all audiences, with banjos ringing and fiddles playing to the country classics we have all come to know and love.
